DETAILED ACTION

Specification

Page 2, last two paragraphs to the beginning of page 3 are confusing as the numbers referred to therein do not coincide with the numbers found in the figures; clarification is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 11,13,15-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no mention of 'edged' projections in the original disclosure of this application. If this language is in the specification, applicant should specifically point out the page and line numbers.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 17-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Salete-Garces. This patent shows apparatus to degerminate/seed grains including projections on both rotor and stator, the rotor including venting holes. Note that an abrasive member possess projections with edges.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 11,13,15,16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Griebat et al in view of Salete-Garces. Griebat discloses the basic process and apparatus including degerminating/seeding grains by cleaning, seeding, aspirating, and milling ((claim 4, lines 4-5, column 5, lines 23-24). Griebat et al does not use a rotor/stator combination having projections which may result in inefficient degerminating/seeding. Salete-Graces '455 solves this problem by disclosing similar process including the use of projections on the rotor/stator. In order to efficiently degerminate/seed the material, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Griebat et al by using a rotor/stator combination with projections, taught to be desirable by Salete-Garces '455.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/20/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The indefiniteness rejection discussed above allows for the maintaining of the rejections previously set forth. It is simply not clear what applicant means by the phrase 'edged projections'.
